

You are invited to join us at our Sibthorpe Street training facility for the next seminar session series for 2010. Industry specialists from SICK and Brady Australia will be here covering all aspects of factory machine safety. Ranging from our legal obligations and identifying risks, to product selection and functionality. Has proved a very popular session in the past and not one to miss.

Machine Safety Seminar

Wednesday 15th September, 2010

- 8:30am Safety of Machinery AS4024.1 Workshop -What is the Standard all about?
- The legal requirements
 - The Report Writing Process
 - Identifying the Risk & Hazard
 - Risk Assessment Process
 - Hierarchy of Machine Guarding
- 10:00am Morning Tea
- 10:15am Continuation of Safety of Machine AS4024.1 Workshop
- Safety Interlock Requirements & Installation (Tongue, Lockable & Non Contact)
 - Light Curtain, Scanner Requirements & Installation
 - E/Stop Requirements & Installation
 - European Machine Directive 2010 what will it mean?
- 11:30am Lockout/Tagout Solutions
- 12:00pm Lunch
- 12:30pm Integrator / Engineer – Detailed Flexi Soft & CDS Programming Training
- Overview
 - Basic programming examples
 - Use simulation mode to demonstrate worked examples
 - EFI connection to a S3000 Area Scanner

Please express your interest by faxing this invite to : 03 9580 8960

or emailing : claire_carty@remtron.com.au

Name : _____ Company : _____

Phone : _____ Email : _____